

Christian Family Service Centre was established in 1954 by Miss Muriel Boone, a United Presbyterian missionary, to help Mandarin speaking refugees. Material aid, financial support and guidance in finding jobs were provided to needy families. The Agency was first located in 221 Sai Yee Street, Mongkok and moved to 3 Tsui Ping Road, Kwun Tong in 1965.

Over the years, the Agency's work gradually extended and it has now developed into a multi-service agency.

In the early years, it was necessary to depend on gifts from churches overseas to finance the programme. However, the Hong Kong Government and The Community Chest have started to provide financial support as well since 1969.
